The Selim Center for Learning in Later Years

University of St. Thomas to hold Winter Lecture Series at St. Patrick's-Edina

Constructive Communication in a Conflicted Culture

Thursdays, February 9—March 15, 2012

1:30-3:30 pm, Church of St. Patrick-Edina

Are you frustrated by a lack of civility and an abundance of conflict in our culture?

Join us for a six-part series that will explore constructive communication techniques, engage in media analysis, and practice conflict resolution. Take this step forward on an energizing path toward the skills we need to grow as a healthy and engaged community.

Dr. Mike Klein is the Clinical Faculty for Justice and Peace Studies at the University of St. Thomas. His teaching, research, and writing focus on leadership for ethical and effective social change.

Registration Fee: $70 per person for the series.
