MINISTRY OF THE SEPARATED AND DIVORCED

2009-2010 SERIES

FALL SPEAKER SERIES

Monday evenings

7:00–9:00pm

Immaculate Heart of Mary

October 12, 2009

I AM THE BELOVED!

Too often, the fracturing of a marriage results in a shattered sense of one's own goodness. How do we find opportunity for inner healing and growth in this chaotic experience?

October 19, 2009

CHOOSING THE RIGHT PATH

It's up to us! The choices we make during this divorce experience will affect the course of our lives, and the lives of people around us. What can we do to make sure our choices will lead to happiness?

GUIDEPOSTS ALONG THE WAY

Most of us don't like change; it's hard! How do we remain on our new path when we are constantly tempted to return to old concepts and behaviors?

Our speaker is Carrie Kemp, pastoral minister, lecturer, retreat leader and author.

Presentations are free of charge. No registration is necessary and you may attend any or all of the presentations. A pastoral minister will be available for personal consultation after the presentation.

SPRING SPEAKER SERIES

Monday evenings

7:00–9:00pm

Church of St. Patrick

April 19, 2010

EMBRACING CHANGE

No, life will never be the same! Healing doesn't bring us back to the way things used to be. Most of us don't even know where the changes are leading us! How do we remain confident in the process of so many new beginnings in our lives?

April 26, 2010

ANGER AND CONFLICT

Studies name the inability to resolve conflict as the Number One reason for divorce. Negative attitudes about anger and conflict are destructive to our healing process and prevent us from experiencing intimacy with others. We can choose to embrace our anger in healthy ways that will enhance all of our relationships.

SPIRITUALITY IN NOT YOUR AVERAGE RELIGION

Although spirituality is the closest intimacy experienced between two people, we see little evidence of shared spirituality in most marriages. This 'alone' time in your life is rich opportunity to explore and expand this vitalizing component within you.

Our speaker is Carrie Kemp, pastoral minister, lecturer, retreat leader and author.

Presentations are free of charge. No registration is necessary and you may attend any or all of the presentations. A pastoral minister will be available for personal consultation after the presentation.
