An Invitation to All Parishioners:

On March 12-20, 2012, we are having our fifth opportunity for parishioners to experience a Pilgrimage to Cobán, Guatemala. This is intentionally different than a “mission trip” where the goal is to roll up your sleeves and help accomplish a task. Instead, the goal of the Pilgrimage is to offer the gift of presence. We go with the objective to engage with the monks and the people they serve. With this focus we join the monks in their community prayer, we travel with some of them to distant mountain villages to celebrate Mass, we accompany Br. Juan to help distribute water filter systems donated by St. Patrick's and join other activities organized by the monks. We spend time in the evening reflecting on what we are seeing and experiencing. It is a trip of a lifetime and I invite you to consider joining us this year.

Feel free to invite friends or family members if you wish. The trip is limited to ten spots, four of which are already filled. The price of the airline ticket is approximately $800. No need to speak Spanish - Fr. Tim and Teresa Palacios will help translate. Typical weather is: lows in the 60s, highs in the 80s, with spots of rain - dress in layers.

For more information contact Cappy Moore.

Please pray and think about this trip. We would love to have you join us.
