

Social Justice Ministries

HOUSE THE HOMELESS MINISTRY LINKS

WHAT: FAMILIES MOVING FORWARD

The downstairs classrooms at St. Patrick's are converted into bedrooms to house homeless families through Families Moving Forward three or four times a year. (Maximum guest capacity:16)

WHEN:

February 1-8, 2009
April 19-25, 2009
November 8-15, 2009

TIME:

There are many opportunities to help during their visit. Volunteer options vary from bringing a box of cereal to spending an evening playing with the children. Sign ups are always two to three weeks from the arrival dates of the guests. Watch the bulletin and tables in the Celtic Center to see what you can do to help make our guests feel welcomed and comfortable.

WHO:

This ministry is fantastic for young families, couples and singles.

INTERESTED? Contact Lynn & Jim Wangen @ lewangen@msn.com
Or the Social Justice Office X114 cmoore@stpatrick-edina.org

WHAT: HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

Building affordable housing in the Twin Cities one nail at a time.

WHEN:

One week during the summer (June 1- 5, 2009). Dates and location are typically chosen in March.

TIME:

Typical work day is from 9:00am-4:30pm. No experience needed

WHO:

This ministry is a fabulous opportunity for families with children over 13 and adults- young and old.

INTERESTED? Contact Social Justice Office X114 cmoore@stpatrick-edina.org. We are actively looking for some leaders to help organize this fun-filled community and house building week.