Action Alert: Add Your Voice and Values to the Health Care Debate

Health care reform is at the center of the national stage these days, and much is at stake. Have you added your voice to the national discussion? Do your elected officials know where you stand on health care reform? Have you shared your values, hopes and fears with those who will be voting on this reform in the coming weeks or months?

Your United States Senators and Representative are back in Minnesota until Labor Day, and they need to hear from you. Please contact them today and let them know your thoughts on health care reform. Now is the time to lend your voice and values to this important issue. Decisions will be made by our elected officials, but those decisions will be heavily informed by what they hear in the coming weeks. Will you take a moment right now to ensure that they hear yours?

Make three calls or send three emails right now to make a difference!
